THE STRENGTH OF SERVICE

Meet the volunteer organizations dedicated to Methodist

Methodist Dallas Auxiliary members volunteer in the Gift Shop, donating all proceeds back to hospital programs.

Methodist Health System is fortunate to have four volunteer organizations that help support its work of improving and saving lives through compassionate, quality healthcare.

The Methodist Dallas Medical Center Auxiliary has supported Methodist Dallas for over 90 years by funding special needs and volunteering thousands of hours annually. The Methodist Dallas Auxiliary raises funds through events such as Masquerade Jewelry Sales and pecan sales. In May 2016, the Auxiliary awarded Methodist Health System Foundation $75,487 to benefit Methodist Dallas. Part of this contribution was awarded for the purchase of a Giraffe OmniBed Carestation for the neonatal intensive care unit.

The Methodist Charlton Medical Center Auxiliary was formed in August 2010. Annually the group hosts its Tour of Tables event, a tablescapes contest and luncheon that supports programs and equipment for Methodist Charlton. For example, a recent generous contribution of $15,796 enabled the physical medicine department to acquire new high-tech monitors that allow the therapist to safely and effectively monitor a patient's vital signs during mobility activities.

The Methodist Mansfield Medical Center Auxiliary members not only volunteer their time in the hospital, but their book fairs, accessory sales, and annual Holly Days event garner between $10,000 and $30,000 a year for the hospital. Their recent pledge of $50,000 was a great contribution to the Methodist Mansfield Tower Two Capital Campaign. The Auxiliary also just recently donated $8,975 for the purchase of the surgical services tracking board.

Founded in 1932, the Methodist Hospitals of Dallas Guild has a rich history. The only criteria for membership are an interest in supporting Methodist and a commitment to involvement. In April 2016, $53,262 was awarded at the Guild's annual style show to benefit volunteer scholarships and equipment for Methodist Dallas and Methodist Charlton. The group's fundraisers, which also include book fairs, electronics sales, and jewelry sales, aim to welcome the community into the hospital.

Methodist Foundation is grateful to these wonderful organizations for helping support the mission of Methodist. To learn more about how to get involved, call the Foundation at 214-947-4555.

"As volunteers, we are able to provide assistance to not only the patients but also their families and friends. We provide the kind of care and concern that we would want for our loved ones. It is truly an honor to help them in their time of need."

MARNEE CAMP
President, Methodist Mansfield Auxiliary

2 The Methodist Charlton Auxiliary's 2016 Tour of Tables featured a Hollywood theme.

THIS YEAR'S FOLSOM FOCUS: SERVING THE UNDERSERVED

DEAR FRIENDS,

We are gearing up for another exciting Robert S. Folsom Leadership Award coming up this fall and are pleased to announce that we will be honoring R. Gerald Turner, PhD.

Dr. Turner is a philanthropist who is known for his more than two decades of academic, civic, educational, and business leadership in Dallas. As the longest-serving president of Southern Methodist University, Dr. Turner has led an era of unprecedented progress, including a $1 billion major gifts campaign that surpassed its goal in September 2015, three months ahead of schedule.

Proceeds from the 2016 Folsom Award will be used to create a world-class simulation laboratory. This lab will transform medical education at Methodist Health System, expanding the practice of “see one, do one, teach one” to include an initial step simulating a procedure prior to patient contact.

The Folsom Award has been integral to the advancement of programs and services at Methodist Health System, contributing more than $14 million since the first event in 2005.

If you are interested in joining us as we honor Dr. Turner and would like to attend the 2016 dinner, please contact Angela Nash, vice president development, at 214-947-4555 or folsom@mhd.com. More information is available at Foundation.MethodistHealthSystem.org/Folsom.

All the best,

APRIL BOX, CFRE
President and CEO

MEET EMILY MOSER: DEVELOPMENT COORDINATOR

“Happiness is the real sense of fulfillment that comes from hard work.”

JOSEPH BARBARA

This is Emily Moser’s favorite quote, and it reflects the motivation behind her hard work and dedication daily. She has a passion for serving in the nonprofit world, and helping others gives her a sense of purpose. Emily’s amazing can-do attitude has made her an exceptional addition to the Methodist Health System Foundation team.

Emily earned a double major in management and marketing from Oklahoma State University in Stillwater. After graduating, she interned at Medical City Dallas Hospital before joining Methodist Health System as a freelancer in the public relations and marketing department in December 2014. In November 2015, she joined the Foundation as the development coordinator, a role to which she brings several skill sets, such as writing, special event organization, educational presentations, and website management.

When asked what she loves most about Methodist, she says: “I absolutely love the people. The team is so much fun to work with and always willing to help. I grew up volunteering, especially with my sorority Alpha Delta Pi, so to be able to work for a nonprofit is very rewarding.”

In her spare time, Emily loves to read, shop, and spend time with her fiancé, family, friends, and dog, Avery.

SERVICE LINE SPOTLIGHT:

TRAUMA CARE YOU CAN TRUST

J. Darryl Amos, MD, FACS

On April 17, 2013, an explosion at a fertilizer plant in West, Texas, claimed 15 lives and injured more than 160 others. On Dec. 26, 2015, North Texans lost their lives to deadly tornadoes. And this past summer, we saw horror unfold on the streets of downtown Dallas when a gunman shot and killed five police officers and wounded seven others and two civilians.

We never know when the worst will happen, but we can prepare for it. This is the central theme of the 16th annual Hobert Trauma Symposium, which will take place at Methodist Dallas Medical Center on Sept. 30. Funded in part by an endowment through Methodist Health System Foundation, this year's symposium will focus on disaster planning and responding to mass casualties.

“We depend on the support and benevolence of the Dallas community and the Foundation to sustain this program for all who are ill or injured.”

“The symposium gives us an opportunity to showcase our trauma services and to initiate a best-practices discussion on how to improve responses for large-scale tragic events,” says J. Darryl Amos, MD, FACS, trauma medical director and chairman of the department of surgery at Methodist Dallas, a Level I Trauma Center.

Susan Briggs, MD, director of the International Trauma and Disaster Institute at Massachusetts General Hospital (MGH) and professor at Harvard Medical School, will be keynote speaker. Also representing Harvard and MGH is trauma surgeon Marc de Moya, MD. David Livingston, MD, FACS, division chief of trauma surgery and program director surgical critical care fellowship at Rutgers–New Jersey Medical School, will also be featured. Dr. Livingston was part of the Boston Marathon bombing response.

The Hobert Trauma Symposium is expected to draw physicians and medical professionals from throughout the region for continuing education that will ultimately improve the safety of our community.

“Whether our patients are being flown in from the region’s outlying areas or are part of our local community, which is highly underinsured, they can rest assured they’re being treated in an advanced facility by highly trained trauma medical professionals,” Dr. Amos says. “The Foundation makes that possible. We depend on the support and benevolence of the Dallas community and the Foundation to sustain this program for all who are ill or injured.”
